

State of South Carolina

Governor's Proclamation

WHEREAS, clean energy can help attract investment from foreign and domestic companies that value energy efficiency and clean energy resources; and

WHEREAS, South Carolina's new distributed energy law improves access to solar energy, enabling individuals and businesses to take advantage of opportunities that can cut costs and make energy usage more efficient; and

WHEREAS, increased energy efficiency in homes, schools, and workplaces is essential to our future prosperity and energy independence; and

WHEREAS, the theme for this year's observance of National Energy Action Month is Transition to a Clean Energy Reality.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nikki R. Haley, Governor of the Great State of South Carolina, do hereby proclaim October 2014 as throughout the state and encourage all South Carolinians to take action to use energy more efficiently and wisely.
